

Health Care/Assistance for the Mentally Ill

Presbyterian Women feel called to involvement with the following organizations. Contact moderator@firstchurchlf.org

Health Reach of Lake County, the only free medical clinic in Lake County. It provides free health care by relying on donations and volunteer healthcare professionals.

Independence Center for mentally ill people offering training in social skills, work skills, and employment opportunities in Waukegan, IL. The center is a haven during the day, where persons are welcomed, treated with grace and dignity, and learn self-confidence and respect.